SNAIL'S BAY, BALMAIN.—To be sold, positively, a valuable ALLOTMENT, having 100 feet frontage to the water, by a depth of about 100 feet, and containing about 10,000 square feet of ground, with a frontage to the water of about 100 feet, and a depth of about 100 feet. The land is situated in the parish of St. Andrew, and is bounded by the water on the north and east, and by the land of the Corporation of Balmain on the south and west. The land is now in the possession of the Corporation of Balmain, and is offered for sale by public auction, on the 1st day of May, 1877, at 12 o'clock, by the Auctioneer, Mr. J. H. B. Smith, at the City Hall, Sydney. this respect. The richest capital among us, whose aims and purposes are like those of a man of "above suspicion," could not get his bill passed and at a man's side, not even for 250. It is therefore clear that the strict would be in a far better position were the bank, as at present conducted, at Deniliquin. Mr. Smith has now been here for upwards of six months, and is, to all appearance, a gentleman in whom the directors of his bank could place unreserved confidence, and it is well that the general public should understand Mr. Smith's position. The heads of the new South Wales Bank at Sydney and Melbourne would therefore do well to bear in mind that we do not feel disposed to possess a nominal establishment. To cash bills, indiscriminately, and to exercise proper care in carrying out different things; and when we know that small sums of money are refused on good deeds of freehold property, and that our bank, most respectable, and most solvent man can get recognition, the Bank of New South Wales is already doing many hundreds; let them therefore either retire, and make room for local enterprise; or fulfil their integrity, the duties of a banking establishment.

LIFE INSURANCE—THIRTY DAYS' GRACE.
To the Editor of the Sydney Morning Herald.
—The Directors of the Australasian Mutual Life Assurance Society have advertised the

of their offices in the event of a given day for the payment of thirty days' grace, namely, for the payment of thirty days' grace, seems reasonable that in such a contingency the insurance should be for the benefit; at the same time it is a satisfaction to have a distinct understanding of the policy, and importance, and the fact, so, it has been recently decided, that insurance offices are not legally liable in those circumstances. It has always been my opinion that, as far as possible, the policy should be absolute security for the insured, so long as the premiums are paid in accordance with the rules of the company, and, unless it is certainly understood, as in the case of the Mutual, that the policy is not to be paid, may still be paid, during the days of grace before the date of payment, those days of grace, so called, may be no better than a trap. I am not aware that in two other offices besides the one above named, the insured is to have from each of them a distinct and separate acknowledgment of their practice as the Mutual Office has made. I do not think that either of them would take an undue advantage if it were to be so, and I think that the respectability of the office issuing of a directors', why should we have policies or receipts for premiums, or any documents at all? I do not wish to refer by name to any office at present, and will not.

hope that every respectable life office in Sydney will follow the lead of the Mutual Provident, and adhere to plainness what is their practice on the point in question.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant.

THE BISHOP OF SYDNEY.—The Bishop of Sydney, accompanied by Mrs. Barker, arrived at Roseville on Saturday evening. On Monday his lordship delivered two sermons in St. Saviour's Church, in aid of the funds of the Diocesan Church Society. On Friday last he consecrated the burial ground at Gungahlin; yesterday he held a confirmation at Bongamin; and on Thursday next he will consecrate the burial ground in connection with the Church of England at its town. During his lordship's tour he has confirmed and baptized twelve candidates; eighteen Catechumens, twenty converts, and Communion at Gungahlin, and fifty-six at Goulburn. — Goulburn Herald.

WELSHMAN MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—On Sunday last, sermons were preached in the different Wesleyan chapels in the district, on behalf of the Welshman Missionary Society. On the following evening, a public meeting was held in the Wesleyan chapel of its town, which was attended by a very large and respectable audience.

om, J.P., and several ministers and gentlemen dressed the meeting. At the conclusion of the meeting, a collection was made, which, with the contributions of the previous day, amounted to $16.14.—Bathurst Times.

CANBERRA.—Horses and cattle stealing appear to be casually on the increase lately in this district, and it is much to be regretted under the vigilance of the police and the better secured state of the law, that such a rash, and will be practically adopted. Dr. Traill of Ellersley, had a mob of cattle lately stolen, and K. G. Buxby, the Chief Constable, had two valuable horses stolen from them. These losses, however, may be added another case, which has just occurred. Two mares, the property of Messrs. A. and Buxby, returned a few days ago with fresh brands and saddle, and a reward of fifty pounds offered on the capture of the offenders. Let, therefore, the police pursue themselves from their Rip Van Winkle lethargy; and the upstart thieves, let them deal a heavy blow and great discouragement, and root out the stock and branch, and every good member of society will render all the assistance in their power in the good cause. Wodden Newspaper.

DURHAM.—Durham.—Some short time ago, a man named Beaunders, who had resided for a period upon the station of Mr. Joseph Smith, for the Lechian, as hunkleper, left his situation in the fiction, and he was so well accumulated, and had been so long in the world, that he would find it for a time nothing was some of him.

A few days afterwards, he made his appearance at Dr. Hamlyn's station, looking somewhat wild and unsettled in intellect, and stated amongst a variety of interesting circumstances, that there were three persons who nobody would find it. On the same day he left, and he was never heard of, the impression being that he had wandered into the bush and died of starvation, or something else equally happy. It is true, however, money was heard in the next-time a day or two afterwards, on the plain behind Mr. Smith's station, so that no one took any trouble to ascertain from whom it proceeded, and it is conjectured that it was sent on from the person who had disappeared, to make his way to the station. And thus, for the present, the affair is wrapped in mystery.—Bathurst Free Press.

RUGG.—On Thursday last two matches came off at the Mudgee course—the first between Mr. Earhart's second steewain and Mr. Kemmis' Counselor—the second between Boatwain and Mr. Martin's Folg-a-ballah. The latter was a goodly number of spectators present, and during the contest many bets were laid down. The dubbo against Mudgee. The first race, for £20, on a mile, one event, was well contested, Boatwain coming a winner by about two lengths. Boatwain also

PHYSICAL AND MENTAL EDUCATION.—At Harrow it thought almost discreditable not to play, and play all, at some game. And I am happy to say that very young, if not all, of our successful scholars have been great as well as in the school games. I have known boys who have gained an annual scholarship by open cr mination against the school, and who have been bo members, or even captain, of our eleven at cricket. No is need be afraid of an army of book-worms fr narrow. The few boys who could thus be described all cover other themselves as soldiers.
The boys are well what they are fitted by nature; the same boys would be by soldiers who would have not been so unde other circumstances. The new regulations would be the best of giving your the same raw material the better manufactured than heretofore. You will be hold bare boys offering themselves for the arm before, only they will be a little better equippe Intellectually. I never yet heard of a boy who was covered by being something also of a scholar.—D
